Writing Progress Check

Task

There was an incident at the mall. Lisa Brent, a customer, was in the food court. She slipped on a wet floor. Read the conversation between Raja and Paul to find out what happened.

Raja:	Hi.
Paul:	Hi. What's up?
Raja:	A customer just had an accident.
Paul:	Oh? That's terrible! Where? Were you there?
Raja:	Yeah. In the food court. It happened right in front of me.
Paul:	On your break, right? Must have happened just a little while ago… 12:30, or so?
Raja:	Exactly at 12:30. I looked at my watch.
Paul:	Did the customer fall?
Raja:	Yes. Someone had spilled some water on the floor. I don't know why people don't do the responsible thing and report such incidents.
Paul:	People are just too busy, I guess. Was the customer hurt?
Raja:	Pretty bad, I think. Maybe a broken bone. She tried to be brave about it, but I could tell she was in real bad pain. I called for an ambulance right away.
Paul:	Wow!
Raja:	Yeah, she was in pretty bad shape. Poor thing! Don, the guy who works at the delivery dock, was also there. He called for the cleaners right away.

Paul:	Oh, good. All mopped up then?
Raja:	The cleaner was there in a couple of minutes. Anyway, I had better get going. I need to write up the incident report. See you later.
Paul:	Bye. Oh, I almost forgot. Sima was looking for you. She said it was urgent.
Raja:	I will stop by her office. Thanks.
Paul:	Sure.
